Diversity is changing the face of our nations. Workers of all backgrounds are merging into a global marketplace, while businesses are challenged by a shortage of talent and the need to integrate a wide range of cultures.

In this global environment, diversity has become a permanent business characteristic; opportunities will be plentiful for both people and businesses. In this book, Diversity: Leaders Not Labels, Stedman Graham indicates that we do not have to become a member of anyone else's culture to play a key role, but must maintain and assert our own identities while respecting others' uniqueness in our workforces and communities. This book explains that hard work, sacrifice, talent and self-motivation are the tolls you need for the future. By showcasing individuals who have successfully transcended labels to become leaders, Graham helps readers begin to move from their history to carving their own individual pathways to success, based on authenticity as well as the talents and skills they bring to your firm.

Diversity: Leaders Not Labels is available in the ALA Bookstore.
