

ALA is the premier professional association connecting leaders and managers within the legal industry. We provide extensive professional development, collaborative peer communities, strategic operational solutions, and business partner connections empowering our members to lead the business of law.

ALA PROVIDES:

Legal management best practices and solutions

Continuing education on local and national level

Connection to an extensive legal management community