TN10   Deal Management Code Set

Managing project activities, i.e., time spent overseeing the management of the matter based on assuring that scope, time and cost are evaluated, monitored and communicated. Includes adjusting the level of effort and assignment of work, communicating among the team and with the client/customer on changes in circumstances and evaluation of budget against actual.

Processes: To Be Developed